

Mechanical Engineer-Internal Auditor

Job Description

Summary:

In this position, the successful candidate will be responsible for the following:

Performing Internal Audits to the requirements of ISO9001:2015 and IATF16949:2016

- Follow the schedule defined for the year*
- Completing Audit Reports*
- Opening & Issuing Corrective Action Reports*
- Following up on reports for closure*

Continuous Improvement Engineer

- Analyzing production operations to determine opportunities for improvements in cost, quality and delivery as well as recommend and implement alternatives.*
- Develop Team Actions to reduce internal scrap on a monthly basis*
- Participating in cross-functional teams to define future processes and new product strategies, capacity requirements and application of new technologies.*
- Tool performance review and action item development (frequency and failure mode review)*
- Ensure we are implementing new tooling technology, coatings, and designs (trade shows / onsite tooling vendor visits)*

Job Qualifications:

- 3-5 years of Experience in an Industrial environment*
- Third Party training in Internal Auditing. Company will offer the opportunity for additional training.*
- B.S. in Mechanical, Manufacturing or Industrial Engineering.*
- Knowledge of MS Word, Excel, MS Project, AutoCAD.*
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills.*
- Analytical and problem-solving ability.*
- Demonstrated ability to determine cause and effect of variables associated with the manufacturing process.*