

Plater
Job Description

Summary:

The Plater's objective is to follow written work instructions and procedures to meet the customer's expectations on chrome coating services provided.

Job Responsibilities:

The Plater is required to set up and run various hard chrome plating jobs to specifications and customer requirements outlined on blueprints and procedures. Duties include degreasing, sandblasting, inspection and preparation of work to run in accordance with specific requirements. Tank maintenance, cleaning and measurement of finished work also required. The plater is also required to follow all SOPs and appropriate work instructions. The plater may be asked to perform other tasks above and beyond their regular assignments. Personnel are also required to maintain a clean and orderly work area and are encouraged to provide continuous improvement suggestions.

Education and Experience:

In-house training and/or prior experience is acceptable.

Personnel will be provided safety training in proper handling of equipment, hazardous materials, chemical storage area and other areas as deemed necessary.

Personnel will be provided training in applicable job duties required by procedures including, but not limited to water break evaluation, taping procedure, inspection tool handling, visual attributes, acceptance and rejection criteria, and sampling plans. Basic Math

Ability to follow written instructions.

Ability to work with nominal supervision.

Literate: read and write.

Measuring equipment: caliper, micrometer, tape measure.